WHO: Course is open to law enforcement and military only

DETAILS: Basic: This is a 3 day intensive scenario based course designed for single person response to an active shooter event. It is ideal for SROs and those rural agencies where waiting for a full team to arrive is not an acceptable option. Some topics include: Exterior Movement, Breaching, Hallway Movement, Room Entries, Link Ups, Communication, Mindset, Equipment, and Medical.

Instructor: This course is a 5 day/48 hour intensive, single officer based active shooter response course. Tactics taught include: exterior movement, hallway movement, breaching setups, room entries, post shooting procedures, medical, and command and control.

Students will need any/all deployment gear assigned to them or gear that they would actually deploy with. This course is a scenario based course and will be conducted with the use of Simunition FX® equipment. Students will need their own conversion kit for rifle and or pistol plus approximately 125 rounds of Simunition FX®. Conversion kits and ammo are available to rent at extra cost. Please indicate the need for rentals at the time of registration.

INSTRUCTOR: Lead instructor, Nick Minzghor, is a 27 year Master Police Officer from the King County Sheriff's Office and Marine veteran. Nick spent 6 years on the SWAT team as a sniper and was assigned to the Tactical Training Unit. Nick developed or co-developed every firearms program in use at his department today. He has been involved in the development and delivery of various active shooter programs since 2001. Nick is a competitive shooter, ranked as Master with USPSA and holds a Shodan ranking in Yang Ki Yin JiuJitsu.
